MISCELLANEOUS AWARD:

2002 Telly Award, for the television commercial "Impossible."
This award was given following selection of our television commercial from over 1,200 judged in 2002. It highlighted the cochlear implant technology available as an example of the strength of the clinical and research neuroscience programs that were established at the Froedtert & Medical College of Wisconsin Hospital in Milwaukee. Dr. Wackym served as the medical advisor and served as an actor for the commercial.

UNIVERSITY TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES:

Medical College of Wisconsin

Co-Director, Otology and Neuro-otologic Skull Base Surgery Curriculum, Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, 1998-2009; included monthly otology conference, annual resident temporal bone dissection course, daily teaching in the operating room, research laboratory, and clinic. Basic science core curriculum (every-other-year [three months, one hour per week]).

Frontiers in Acoustic Neuroma Management
Sponsored by the Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, October 18, 2002.
P. Ashley Wackym (Course Director), Regional Course.

Temporal Bone Dissection Course
Sponsored by the Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, May 20-21, 2007.
P. Ashley Wackym (Course Co-Director), Regional Course.

Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Director, Otology and Neurotology Curriculum, Department of Otolaryngology, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, 1995-1998; included biweekly otology conference, quarterly resident temporal bone dissection course, daily teaching in the operating room, research laboratory, and clinic.

New York Otology and Neurotology Update – 1996
Sponsored by the Department of Otolaryngology, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, October 31 to November 2, 1996.
P. Ashley Wackym (Course Director), International Course.

UCLA School of Medicine

Director, Otology, Neurotology and Cranial Base Surgery Curriculum, Division of Head and Neck Surgery, UCLA School of Medicine, 1992-1995; included monthly otology conference, biannual resident temporal bone dissection course, daily teaching in the operating room, research laboratory, and clinic.

TRAINING RECORD:
Predoctoral Trainees: Since 1993 there have been 13 predoctoral trainees.
Postdoctoral Trainees: Since 1993 there have been 14 postdoctoral trainees.

Supervised* Presentations By Trainees:
*Supervision process involved mentoring until completion of the basic or clinical research, including: study design; laboratory education; directing and developing problem solving skills; analysis of data; summary of the results; and presentation of the results at a national or international meeting.
Since 1993, there have been 37 supervised presentations by trainees.

Awards Won By Postdoctoral Trainees:
1994 Second Place, Basic Science Category, American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery / Association for Research in Otolaryngology Research Forum Paper Competition, Project: "Subcellular innervation patterns of calcitonin gene-related peptidergic terminals in the chinchilla vestibular periphery," (Akira Ishiyama, M.D.).
1995 Shirley Baron Research Award, The Triological Society, Western Section, Project: "Distribution of efferent cholinergic terminals and α-bungarotoxin binding to putative nicotinic acetylcholine receptors in the human vestibular end-organs," (Akira Ishiyama, M.D.).
1995 Nicholas Torok Vestibular Award of the American Neurotology Society, Project: "Molecular and biochemical characterization of the efferent cholinergic system in the human vestibular periphery: Implications for pharmacotherapy." (Akira Ishiyama, M.D.)
2002 Henry Williams Research Award, First Place, The Triological Society, Middle Section, Project: "A novel Connexin 26 compound heterozygous mutation results in deafness." (Kevin C. Harris, M.D.)
2002 Second Place Award, Basic Science Category, American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery / Association for Research in Otolaryngology, Project: "Gene discovery using a neurofibromatosis type 2 (NF2) vestibular schwannoma cDNA library." (Stacey L. Halum, M.D.)
2003 Trainee Award, American Neurotology Society, Project: "Serial Analysis of Gene Expression (SAGE) in Neurofibromatosis Type 2 Associated Vestibular Schwannoma." (Stacey L. Halum, M.D.)
2004 Third Place Award, Basic Science Category, American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery / Association for Research in Otolaryngology, Project: "Selective Acquisition of Individual Cell Types in the Vestibular Periphery for Molecular Biology Studies." (Ricardo Cristobal, M.D., Ph.D.)
2007 William P. Potsic Honorable Mention Award for Basic Science Research, American Society of Pediatric Otolaryngology, Project: "MUC2 Expression in Human Middle-Ear Epithelium of Patients with Otitis Media." (Matthew L. Ubell, M.D.)

Awards Won By Predoctoral Trainees:
2000 Medical College of Wisconsin/Marquette Medical Alumni Association Outstanding Presentation Award, Ninth Annual Graduate and Medical Student Research Poster Presentations, Project: "Radiation Hybrid Mapping of Eleven Alpha and Beta Nictotinic Acetylcholine Receptor Subunit Genes in the Rat." October 20, 2000. (Jeffrey Tseng).
2000 Armand J. Quick Award for Outstanding Senior Medical Students in Biochemistry, Medical College of Wisconsin, Project: "Biophysics of MRI – Cochlear Implant Internal Magnet Interactions." May 10, 2000. (Robert E. Sonnenburg).
2007 Armand J. Quick Award for Outstanding Senior Medical Students in Biochemistry, Medical College of Wisconsin, Project: "In Silico Analysis of Gene Expression in the Vestibular Periphery." October 11, 2007. (Joseph P. Roche).

Current Faculty Appointments of Past Research Trainees:

Akira Ishiyama, M.D., Professor, Division of Head and Neck Surgery, Department of Surgery, David Geffen UCLA School of Medicine, Los Angeles, California.

Seth H. Dailey, M.D., Associate Professor, Division of Otolaryngology, Department of Surgery, University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Elizabeth H.Y. Toh, M.D., Associate Professor, Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, Boston University School of Medicine, Boston, Massachusetts.

David R. Friedland, M.D., Ph.D., Professor and Vice Chairman, Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Valerie A. Flanary, M.D., Associate Professor, Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Jill B. Firszt, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Otolaryngology, Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis, Missouri.

Christina L. Runge, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Otolaryngology and Communication Sciences, Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Stacey L. Halum, M.D., Assistant Professor and Research Director, Department of Otolaryngology, Indiana University School of Medicine, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Stacey L. Ishman, M.D., Associate Professor, Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, Baltimore, Maryland.

DISSERTATION COMMITTEES:

CURRENT LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT:

Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (Candidate)

Course work completed for Board Certification requirements:

1. Strategic Planning: From Formulation to Action. ACHE Cluster Seminar (12 hours of ACHE Face-to-Face Education credit). Scottsdale, AZ, May 16-17, 2011.
2. Toxic Behaviors in Healthcare: Creating Systems of Respect to Impact the Double Bottom Line. ACHE Cluster Seminar (12 hours of ACHE Face-to-Face Education credit). Scottsdale, AZ, May 18-19, 2011.
3. Developing Proactive Physician Alignment and Employment Practices. ACHE Cluster Seminar (12 hours of ACHE Face-to-Face Education credit). New York, NY, August 10-11, 2011.
4. Board of Governors Examination Review Course. (19 hours of ACHE Face-to-Face Education credit). Scottsdale, AZ, October 3-5, 2012.

Course work underway for Board Certification requirements:

1. Followership: Increasing Trust, Respect and Pride. 2013 ACHE Self-Study Program (6 hours of ACHE Qualified Education credit).
2. Profit Analysis and Cost Allocation. 2013 ACHE Self-Study Program (6 hours of ACHE Qualified Education credit).
3. Financial Statements. 2013 ACHE Self-Study Program (6 hours of ACHE Qualified Education credit).
4. Prepare for Board of Governors Exam Online Tutorial Course. 2014 ACHE Self-Study Program.
