

Legacy Cancer Institute presents...

Excellence in Radiation Oncology

The 34th Annual Seminar for Radiation Oncology Professionals features these speakers and topics:

Surgical Management of Pancreatic Cancers — Ron Wolf, M.D., FACS

Y-90 Radioembolization for Hepatic Malignancy: Past, Present and Future — Zachary Love, M.D.

The Path to Survivorship in Pediatric Cancers — Kelsie Storm, M.D.

Pediatric Radiation Therapy — Andrew Kee, M.D.

Pediatric Cancer? How Can I Handle This? — Marianne Kabour, Ph.D.

Pharmacy Navigator: A Novel Model for Medication Management — Kelly Rice, PharmD

The Skinny on Skin Care During Radiation Treatment — Janet Vanoni, M.N., R.N., OCN

Complementary Therapies in Oncology Care — Marci Reed, R.D., CSO, L.D.;
Joshua Casey, LMT, CMLDT; Margaret Hartsook, LPC, ATR

To register, visit www.legacyhealth.org/conferences.

For additional conference information, contact Jutta Kress at jkress@lhs.org or 503-413-7766.

www.legacyhealth.org

Save the Date

Saturday, April 29, 2017

7:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 7 a.m.

Multnomah Athletic Club

1849 S.W. Salmon St.

Portland, OR 97205

Registration fees*

Non-Legacy employees $95

Legacy employees and students $50

No refunds after April 15, 2017.

Accreditation has been applied for from ASRT for Category "A" contact hours, MDCB for CMD and ARRT credits, and NASW for MSW continuing education credits.*

Continuing education provided by Legacy Health Clinical Practice Support, provider is approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, provider number CEP8749 for 7 contact hours.

LEGACY
H E A L T H

Legacy Good Samaritan Medical Center

Legacy Cancer Institute
1015 N.W. 22nd Ave., Suite 209
Portland, OR 97210

Join us for the 34th Annual Seminar for Radiation Oncology Professionals

Nonprofit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 11
Portland, OR