

Legacy's Values in Action

I commit to:

Legacy commits to:

Treating our people, patients, and community with respect, affirmation, compassion, and inclusion.

RESPECT

We treat all people with respect and compassion.

Keeping our people informed, soliciting feedback, and creating opportunities to participate in significant decisions about their work.

Engaging and collaborating in ways that keep the well-being of our patients, their families, our people, and our community at the center of all I do.

SERVICE

We put the needs of our patients and their families first.

A service-driven culture by making the patient experience a priority, and by demonstrating respect and sensitivity for each other and the diverse people we serve.

Owning the quality of my work by reporting and reducing errors, eliminating waste, improving quality, and ensuring staff and patient safety.

QUALITY

We deliver outstanding clinical services within healing environments.

A culture of safety and quality, where employees are encouraged to make suggestions, report errors, and where we seek to learn from our mistakes.

Modeling ethical behaviors and actions that achieve the highest possible standards and results.

EXCELLENCE

We set high standards and achieve them.

A positive, ethical and productive work environment in which employees work collaboratively to achieve high quality outcomes.

Holding myself and others accountable for operating with integrity, care, and stewardship of our resources.

RESPONSIBILITY

We are good stewards of our resources, ensuring access to care for all.

A mission driven work environment where we manage resources in a balanced and responsible way, to maintain open access for patients, contribute to the community, and remain financially viable.

Being curious and seeking opportunities to improve and embrace change in a positive, productive manner.

INNOVATION

We are progressive in our thinking and actions.

Innovation by embracing diverse perspectives and new ways of doing things, being open to change, pressing for innovation, and staying on the forefront of emerging trends in the larger healthcare environment.

Being accountable for modeling and upholding these values in all my actions.

LEADERSHIP

We serve as a role model of good health and good citizenship.

Exceptional leadership by inspiring our employees to deliver great results for our patients, and ensuring our actions reflect our values.
