Family and health history can affect your cancer risk. Your doctor should always take a complete history.

Polyps can lead to cancer. Finding all of them is the point.

Polyps can lead to cancer. Your doctor should spend at least 6 minutes looking for them.

Polyps should be found and removed in at least 15% of women and 25% of men.

All colonoscopies are not created equal

Legacy Medical Group (100% of the time)

Legacy Medical Group (8.8 minutes)

United States Multi-Society Task Force on Colorectal Cancer