

Legacy Health 2019 Community Benefit Summary

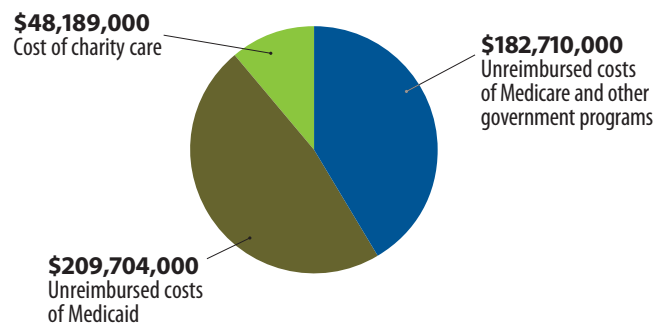

Oct. 1, 2019

Transparency regarding our community benefit funding is extremely important to Legacy Health. Our priority is to ensure that our funding reaches those communities most in need. Legacy's total community benefit for fiscal year 2019 was $466,085,000. We allocated our community benefit to three purposes:

1. Services for people in need

Total $440,603,000

The unreimbursed costs of providing service to Medicare and Medicaid beneficiaries and those who cannot afford health care or are uninsured or underinsured, referred to as "charity care" in the chart

2. Medical education and research

Total $18,090,000

The cost of research studies in excess of payments received from grants and other sources, and the unpaid cost of training medical residents, nursing students and students in allied health professions

(continued)

3. Benefits to the community

Total $7,392,000

Community health programs and services:

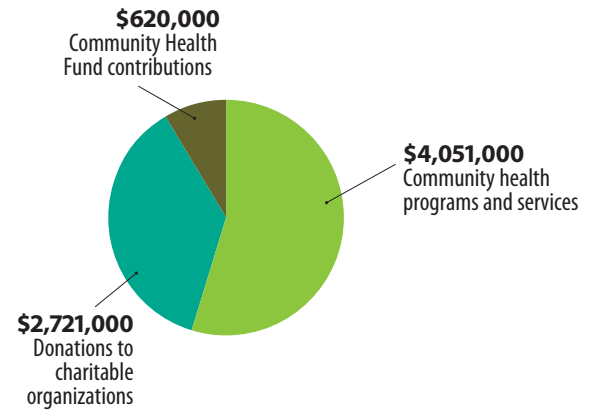

- Community health services: classes, health education, health screenings, resource centers and support groups
- In-kind donations such as meeting room space, office space, outreach/event/screenings and lab support

Donations to charitable organizations include:

- Supporting health and human services, civic and community causes and economic development efforts
- In-kind donations supporting community nonprofits, medical teams
- Larger cash donations include but are not limited to: $889,222 to Central City Concern (Housing is Health), $446,844 to Project Access NOW and Project Access Network and $200,000 to safety net/free clinics
- $1,858,333* of the $2,721,000 accounts for cash donations

Community Health Fund recipients include:

- Funds dedicated to major multi-year health initiatives, including contributions to: Albertina Kerr, Boys & Girls Club of SW Washington, Farmworker Housing Development Corporation, Human Solutions, New Avenues for Youth, Project Access NOW, Health Occupation and Profession Education Program (formerly YES Program), and Legacy's Health Literacy Conference
- Cash donations totaled $620,000*

*Cash contributions to community in 2019 totaled $2,478,333.

